SOCIAL CORNER PRIZE WINNERS FOR APRIL

One Dollar Each

With best wishes I sign myself IOLA.

EDIBLE MUSHROOMS.

know how to identify mushrooms? One-sixth of one of the poisonous mushrooms has caused death. It is therefore im-

the best wish of CRIMSON RAMBLER.

BRANCES.

Dear Corner Folks: How many of you

To PAULA for letter entitled Setting The Boy's Task.

To DON'T WORRY for letter entitled Letter Revives Recollections. To PRIMIROSE for letter entitled Us es for Old Paper Patterns.

To JENNIE for letter entitled Good Practical Advice. To DELIAH DEAL for letter entitled A Delightful Day at Twice Twenty's. SPOIAL CORNER PORTRY.

WE POLES WE USED TO KNOW. As the years go sliding past,
That you get to lookin' back'ardSerrer wistful to'ards, or past?
And how them 'at's your neighbors
Don't stand a ghost of a show.
When you go camparin' of 'em
To the folks you used to know.

It 'sears we list can't recollect
The fraces we've had.
Nur ferty 'leven or things
That made us filin' mad.
But we're salted down the good'n'ss. And no matter whur you go, There's none can "hold a candle" To the folks we used to know.

There wan't no better neighbors-If any one took sick.

They'd come from all d'rections,
Jist wade thru' rain or snow. see how you was comin' on-folks ' used to know.

An' the vittles that they'd fetch yer An' the vittes that they'd retch y
Why, 'twould fairly make you laf,
You'd been deader hur a mackerel,
If you'd only et the half.
Put me in mind of fair time,
Or some purvishun show.
To see 'um packin' in the truck—
The felks' we used to know.

My stars t but they was sochable, Out there on the old state road. An' used to go a visitin' Jest by the wagen load. They'd grin, shake hands, "howdy," And an plain as preachin' show They was tickled most to pieces— The folks we used to know.

They'd feed you en fried chicken.
The best 'twas in the she shop;
An' they'd pile your plate with vittles,
An' I vum they wouldn't stop.
'Til they made you feel sneakin'
To see it loaded so.
Then say. "(ake holt an' help yourself,"
The felks we used to know.

Where air they all, I wonder—All those happy old time folks, That made this life worth livin. With their friendship and their jokes. Well, I ask for nothin better, When it comes my time to go. Then a ticket that will take me To the folks we used to know. -Sent in by Dellah Deal.

ANSWERS AND INQUIRIES. SUNSHINE NO. 2: Your name will be added to the Social Corner list just as soon as you send in your full name and address. Would suggest also, inasmuch as your pen name is the same as another that some other be chosen. NEIGHBOR: Your name has been add-to the list of Social Corner members.

U. C. E.: The membership list of the Secial Corner has been increased by the addition of your name.

SOME TESTED RECIPES. sial Corner Sisters: I am a few tested recipes which I suggests Wearing PEN NAMES to have you try and report ON RIBBONS.

Dan Jon Wine: One quart measure of funt the blosnoms, all you can possibly growd into it. four quarts bailing water, two oranges, two lemons, sliced. Let stand overnight, then strain through cheese cloth, and then add four pounds of granulated sugar, stir thoroughly and put in a gallen jur. The cloth over the top. It the mixtu does not fill the jug, add more water until it will run ever. Let stand until next October then draw off and put inte strong bottles or put back into the jug. This recipe makes a beauthe jug. This recipe makes a beaualmost as white as water.

ed potate. Mash it while hot and stir in the pound of confectioners augar, one box of dromedary cocoanut; flavor with strong coffee. Put in a pan and spread out Melt one square of chocolate and pour over it. When cold cut inte squares. It is fine.

Sweet Pickle Beets: Bell and pare water, one pint of sugar, one teaspoon of balt, a few whole cloves. Put the beets in the syrup and bell about ten minutes, then seal up in glass jars. They have, a fine relish and will keep late Padding: .. Dissolve two squares of chocointe in a quart of milk, add one-half cup of surar, two table-spoons of corn starch. Stir well while botting and boil until thick. Annt Sarah: Don't you see I am living iais I though would answer to your nother's name. I wonder what happened to the Social Corner last week. It was the first time I ever knew it to be left out altogether. There was none in The Courier.

n The Courier.

I mise Aunt Mary's letters in the Corter so much and if I ever meet with the club again it will not seem comlate without her dear presence. We rere always such good friends. If I mew her daughter's address here in town I would like to call en her.
Good luck and good wishes for the Cerner, and all those who are interested

DOM PEDRO.

With best wishes to all.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE MORN.

INGS.

Dear Corner Sisters: Women are be-ginning to realize that for a leng time they have been siaves to their houses and domestics. Some are recognizing the wisdem of occupying smaller homes

CANTERBURY BELL.

the wisdem of occupying smaller homes or a less number of rooms and so plan the work of the house is that it may be done it correct a mistake in my letter lasten to correct a mistake in my letter lasten to correct a mistake in my letter last week which speaks of Mistake in my letter possible. The clever woman of today finds mans shuring in one of the side pews keeping. She has the help of the modern team in the mid Miss Otis takens. It should have been Mrs. Backets. I den't see hew such a mistake could be a mistake to the mistake in the mistake in the mistake have the mistake have week whether sisters out to firm which formerly must be done at home can now be sent out to firms which specialize in such more Mrs. Backets and the old Backus work. tain and blanket laundering, rug cleaning and other labor which formerly for knew Westminster in these days reremainster Mr. Backles and the old Backus lace which was the abow place of the surface which was the above party days I think the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think the local was the was the above party days I think the local was the was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think
the local was the above party days I think the local was the above party days the preparty the local was the abo skins and pared in the morning. A thickening of flour and milk with chopped parsley and a large piece of butter added may be made rendy so that the creamed potatoes of the dinner will be the matter of a few minutes cooking.

We are not always so hadly off as we think we are if we will but arrange our work so as to make it count most.

NORMA.

Dear Sisters of the Corner: You have probably all had your blue days. Re-cently I heard an overburdened woman

A DELIGHTFUL DAY AT TWICE

TWENTY'S

Dear Social Corner Sisters: I want to sympathise with every one of you who were not able to be at Twice Twenty's the 27th. It was one of the most enjoyable gatherings I have ever attended and I fould so many sisters I had never met before I enjoyed becoming acquainted with. There were Be True. Theoda, Nurse Perny, Candy Girl. One. More No. Z. Viola, Flower Lover, Five Willows, Curt.
Last Rose of Summer, Mary Gusta, whom I had never met before, every one of whom knew some one I also knew so we readily become acquainted.

We left Jewett City at 3.19 and at Plainfield were joined by Nixie and reached Danielson on time bully to find that the trolley only went to the Connecticut Mills in the forenoon but we found that we could get a buss here for the resit of our trip which as we were joined here by Smiles we proceeded to do and were the first to arrive where we were warmly welcomed by Twice Twenty and her good man. Even the little brindle dog wagsed his tail with joy, Scon other began to arrive. One auto came from a long distance with 6 sisters packed in on the two seats, profity well squeezed.

What a time we did have visiting un-Silver Locks: Rest assured your kindly thought helped to make the perfect day.

Hope to meet you at the dinner at the Buckingham on May 4th.

STILLWATER.

cake the quickest way save a cup of sponge when you mix your bread. Cream one-half cup of butter with one and one-half cups of susar, add two well beaten eggs and the sponge, two teaspoons of nutmeg, one of cinnamon, one of salt, one-half cup of raisins and flour to make a stiff batter.

Marigold: I received your note and hope you are having good luck with your seeds. Come again, please.

Crimson Rambler: We extainly had quite a facusion and Married and Handler of the general cookies, cake, Tankee dough.

There were a couple dozen who were to a boiling point. Then add 1 heaping teaspoon of soda, and, while it foams add looked very lovely with all the good quart of hot milk. Thicken with cracker crumbs and serve.

Corn Soup—Mash one pint canned corn thoroughly in a chopping bowl, then us would fail to go to the right place.

The tables fairly groaned with the boiled cold ham, warm beef loaf, salads, with one tablespoon of flour mixed to a plain bread, cookies, cake, Tankee dough. make a stiff batter.

Marigold: I received your note and hope you are having good luck with your seeds. Come again, please.

Crimson Rambler: We critainly hed cold ham, warm beef loaf, salads, bolled cold ham, warm beef loaf, salads, batter of taste. Press through a colander and beeve, iged and I agreed and you made a litting the light of the salads, but I'll forgive you this bolled cold ham, warm beef loaf, salads, paste with cold water, and paste with col delicious buns of a Putham sister's own more some that Annt Mary was to have read. "If We Kreek" How true is sand the them then came a sport program. First cand, "If We Kreek" How true is sand the them then came a sport program. First cand, "If We Kreek" How true is sand they are fine, only mine came of the ginger them. Then came a sport program. First cand, "If We Kreek" How true is sand they are fine, only mine came of the company. Some or the company to the compan out cessation day and night. Your physician will explain when sitting down as compared with standing you save your heart nine beats a minute and that when you lie down you take off an additional six beats. So merely lying down means less pumping to be done and less wear and tear on the body's vital organ.

It is thrift of time to take a few moments each day from the activities of one's work and stretch our full length. Housewives and others whose work keeps them on their feet a great deal should sit as much as southly as the four physics. It is the control of a stick and use to greate bread paragraph to know if we ever used our old postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to the know you take off an additional interested in the collar points recently sent to the Corner.

FESS.

It is thrift of time to take a few moments each day from the activities of one's work and stretch our full length. Housewives and others whose work keeps them on their feet a great deal should sit as much as southly as the control of a stick and use to greate bread paragraph to know if we ever used our old postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to the know if we ever used our old postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to the know if we ever used our old postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals to will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid postals. I will tell you how I have done mine. I paste the backs of two cid work is a true the control of the know if we ever used our them on their feet a great deal should sit as much as possible.

Increased vitality and longer lives will result from following these simple suggestions. I am going to try them.

I was looking over my book and I think Nellie Bly will have to open her eyes for May the state of t glassware, lamp chimneys, mirrors and window panes. It gives a high lustre, removes all traces of lint and can be thrown away after using.

Pieces can be cut from the patterns, gressed and fitted to the bottom of cake greased and fitted to the bottom of cake pans before pouring in the dough. In this way all danger that the cake will stick is removed and the paper can be easily pulled off the cake when baked. To save silk parasols from cracking when put away for the winter stuff them tightly with pattern paper. This keeps the folds from wearing. The paper is also useful for wrapping silverware that is not in constant use. If carefully done it may be kept from tarnishing for a long time. fong time. With best wishes, GODD PRACTICAL ADVICE Dear Sisters of the Social Corner This ideal weather, is just the kind for house cleaning, and we are apt to feel so ambitious, to hurry along this work, and forget we should do only a certain amount as our strength permits. Truly, our methods are easier than those of our mothers and we can profit by many ex-periences of former days. I find in look-ing back to my first years of housekeeping, the hints and suggestions given to me than by more experienced house-

MEZING THE DIFFICULITES, persences of concern any and the corner town to account the possible of exert too much care in a selecting them for food. A nevice would much better learn all the characteristics more than persence of the corner of

SOUPS THAT CAN BE MADE QUICK-LY

Sisters of the Social Corner:

Dear Social Corner Editor; Please accept my thanks for the yellow slip. When I read Luck Accra's age in the Corner I tried to think of my own and I believe I am ten, or nearly ten years older.

Pinkey: If you want to make raised cake the quickest way save a cup of sponge when years and leaving out the chopped onion.

I take with 5 sisters packed in on the two soft) substituted for the boiled potatoes. Creamed Cabbage Soup—Use above recipe with 1 small head of cabbage (put till some of them begin to throw out hints that Twice Twenty was keeping.

Tomato Bisque—Strain the juice from the two soft) substituted for the boiled potatoes. Creamed Cabbage Soup—Use above recipe with 1 small head of cabbage (put till some of them begin to throw out hints that Twice Twenty was keeping.

Tomato Bisque—Strain the juice from the two soft) substituted for the boiled potatoes. Creamed Cabbage Soup—Use above recipe with 1 small head of cabbage (put till some) to throw out hints that Twice Twenty was keeping.

Tomato Bisque—Strain the juice from the two soft is soft) substituted for the boiled potatoes, and leaving out the chopped onion.

Continue until you have completely covered the row of meshes made on the MAKING USE OF CARDS AND PIC-recipes so good that it seems a long time to wait from one Saturday to another.

I read and reread The Corner page and wish there were more letters. I hope there will be this week, as that big advertisement took quite a little space last week that could have been better employed.

I have also given the Salvation Army spoon and cup and something to eat as usual, and we will try and fill you all up. A very neat looking set is to take flowers of all kinds and paste them on a piece of plain white paper. On the back week that could have been better employed.

ROSE LEE.

week that could have been better employed.

Red Clover: Tes. I have a little Snnshine, and just this time last year we almost lost her, so I can assure you I feel for you or anyone else who has lost theirs but as I have an only one you know it would be all the harder.

Lucy Acorn: Well, you sure have my sympathy, and I don't blame you to be age, this is a fine amusement: Take a some mad. We all enjoy The Bulletin news, but it seems to me that the Social Corner page is worth more than all the let him outline animal, by making pin-read this do their own dressmaking and buy the reliable paper patterns. When they are past their usefulness as parterns, because of the constantly changing styles do not throw them away for there are uses for them, a few of, which are as to me that the Social Corner page is worth more than all the page. I am only a new-comer but have read every page since it started, although I don't think I know follows:

Since the patterns are both transparent and firm, they are well adapted for them and firm, they are well adapted for magazines and thus pass many a happy hour.

The paper is excellent for polithing

RING'S BUSY MA

THAYER BUILDING

FRANKLIN SQUARE

ALL CUTS, LEAN PLATE CORNED BEEF Pound 10c

FRESH CUT HAMBURG Pound 16c

NATIVE VEAL Shoulder Cuts Pound 16c Rumps, lb.... 28c Short Cut Legs

FRESH CUT PORK CHOPS Pound 26c

NATIVE FOWL Pound 50c

NATIVE CHICKENS Pound 55c SPRING LAMB

Fores, lb..... 16c COMPOUND Pound 28c Small Legs, lb. 38c 2 Pounds 19c

ARMOUR'S SMOKED SHOULDERS Pound 15c 4 to 6 lb. Average

SUGAR CURED HAMS Pound 25c WHOLE OR HALF Sliced to fry, lb. 40c OTTO STHAL'S PURE

LARD 2 Pounds 25c

COOKING

BREAKFAST :

COLUMBIA RIVER Reg. 20c Value SALMON, 1/2's, can 10c COFFEE, Pound 25c

EXTRA SPECIAL! White Rose 55c Value

ARMOUR'S VEGETABLE

PURITAN 1-8 BBL. SACK Lobster, 1/2's... 35c SOUP, 4 cans.. 25c FLOUR $1.25

Well, I think I have taken more than for a seat. Cut out a horse from paste- I am in hopes to meet warmy share of space, but next time I will board, stand him in front of the wagon, 4th. Will bring my apron. send some tried and true cake recipes.

Best wishes to the editor and hoping Best wishes to the editor and hoping the 4th will be a pleasant day and that you will all have a pleasant time.

Yours for the Social Corner.
- BLACK-EYED SUSIE. CLUB NO. 2 MEETS MAY 11TH.

Dear Editor and Sisters: Well, I won-er what has become of all the sisters who were at the April meeting of Club No. 1? Why so quiet since? For my-self, I wish to thank the hostesses for the good dinner they served and the after noon's entertainment. The hostesses (Practical Polly, Eugenia, Theoda, Nannie Sue, Dusty Miller and a little friend of hers, with Studen as chairman) served dinner to about 60 of the sisters and their friends, the long table and one short one being well filled. The usual goodles were in evidence, with plenty of potato salad and hot baked After the social hour spent in renew-

After the social nour spent in remaining old acquaintances and making new, and the usual fancy work (thank you. Debby, for bringing the collar for me to of the oven and want them to keep hot. slore the party of the oven and want them put pits. tions were given by Amy, Student, Buck-eye and Nannie Sue, and Little Sister told about Floradora, the sister who so recently passed away.

The meeting for May 11 will be the last one in the hall for this spring. Hoping for a good day and everybody able to

ANTICIPATING BIG TIME MAY 4. Dear Social Corner: I want to thank Wetona for the recipe I asked for. If I have good luck, I will treat some time. Glad you liked the devil cake. Papa's Boy: I made some of the ginger puffs and they are fine, only mine came out of the oven pancakes instead of droppuffs and they are fine, only mine came out of the even parcakes instead of drop-cakes. Guess I gave them too much room.

Cherisette: Where are you? Have not seen you at the Friday night meetings.

I have a long hatpin which I keep near my oven to try cake and things while baking. I buy those mothproof bags at the five and ten, to put winter hat a conditional and the first and the put in a cup and cover over until the next morning. You will find it just as good.

How I make my coffee: It may not be any better than your way, but I pour ball them. I have a seen they have a very pleasant home. An owning the large of the good times when you first moved there. Think you have a very pleasant home. An owning the large of the good times when you first moved there they are a very pleasant home. An owning the large of the good times when you first moved there they are a very pleasant home. An owning the see you as soon as possible.

Unouse: I often think of the good times we had when we were schoolmates.

any, but have tasted it and it is nice:

One quart dandelion blossoms pressed, two lemons, one orange silced; pour over this four quarts of boiling water, let stand four pounds of sugar, put into a jug, tie a cloth over it, let stand three months.

Hope if anyone tries this they will let me know how they like it.

Didn't someone say to bring fancy work to the next meeting? Well, I will try and send a few samples of lace so if any of the sisters like them they can copy them.

Well, I think I have taken more than ways for a seat. Cut out a horse from paste paper dolls, which she has cut out, upon the next after hatching out three? I have them in the bouse in a box this cold weather.

It a merry-go-round may be cut out. The merry-go-round may then cut the dashboard down a little way. Put Dobbin's tail into this and if his feet touch level the rig is complete.

An attractive tumbler made by dec-orating it with pictures cut from maga-zines—pretty roses, and also pletures of cats and dogs—won a little girl who was sica to drink her broth and milk she had macaroni, and drank it all without pro-test, thus receiving the necessary neur-ishment without being disciplined. KITTY LOU.

SOME THINGS WORTH KNOWING. Dear Corner Friends: I don't think you ave ever seen these suggestions in print.

When rolling out piecrust, use a nice piece of celan paper to roll your crust on, then destroy the paper. You can very easily clean a felt hat by using a little saltpeter dissolved with water, then add a little ammonia. Take a nice piece of writing paper and them in a covered pan; they will keep hot for several hours. . Raw turnip is good for a frozen finger, a nose, etc. "Vinagre a quarte veloure" is a preparation that is used to keep from having an infectious disease; it has been tried, ou can wash your hands and face with Boracle acid and ma sia is one of the best things for a man to use after be

I know that onion will cure a snake bite (raw bruised) except the death adder.
In fixing maited milk, add one teaspoon of cocoa to the tablespoor of malted milk just as good.

How I make my coffee: It may not be any better than your way, but I pour boiling water on the coffee and with one stirred let it come to a boil; remove As lively as ever, I suppose.

U. C. B.

lighted match it is not good.

Use a cloth to wash potatoes.

The a strip of muslin around the end iknow. I've been wishing there was I cut out fancy pictures from newsal Corner page in The Bulletin papers, make a small book and paste do something, so if you will all being letters are so interesting and the about them that will keep children quiet to so good that it seems a long time.

ones.

As I am chairman of the next meeting of Club No. 1. I suppose I have get to do something, so if you will all being something for the May basket, say a 18cent present, you will all set one in the suppose I have get to do something for the May basket, say a 18cent present, you will all set one in the suppose I have get to do something.

paper dolls, which she has out out, upon the nest after hatching out three?

I am in hopes to meet with you May

OVER A HUNDRED AT CLUB NO. 1,5 GATHERING. Dear Editor and Social Corner Sie-ters: Here I am once more in the Cor-ner, I wish to thank the Social Corner sica to drink her broth and milk she had refused. The above method proved successful and she drank through a stick of macaroni, and drank it all without necessful and she drank it all without necessful and she drank it all without necessful and drank it all wit some amoke.

May second is Persy Anne's birthday.

May second is Persy Anne's birthday.

May second is Persy Anne's birthday.
Why not give her a shower of carda
Address No. 431 Lyndall Street. South Manchester, Conn.
N. G. G.: Am looking for a letter, Walde: I would love to have a few of your flower seeds. Would like to have a Social Corner flower bed in my yard.
Don't Werry. Hope you enley your visit to Massachusetts

Best wishes for the Corner.

AUNT SARAE.

NUT SQUARES. Dear Friends of the Social Corner 1 have been your guest on several occa-sions and would like to return your hos-Nat Squares: One cup granulated sugar, one-half cup butter, two eggs, un-beaten, one-half cup flour, one-half cup beaten, one-nair cup flour, one-hair cup chopped nut meats, two squares check-late, melted, little ealt, teaspoon vanilia. Spread thin on shallow tin, and place whole nut meats about two inches apart on top. Bake in moderate oven. When done and partly cooled, mark off into squares, leaving not meat in center of each squares.

ANOTHER CORNER MEMBER. Dear Editor: I have been an interested reader of the Social Corner for some time and have heard of the good times they

WOULD LIKE TO BECOME MEMBER To the Corner Sisters and Editor: My first visit to Club No. 7 I enjoyed very much. It seemed as if I must have me the sisters before, they were so pleasant I have read the letters for quite a lens while and think they are very helpful its many people. I would like to Best winhes to all. SUNSHINE NO. 1 CLUB-RO. 1 MEETS MAY 4TH.

Dear Social Corner Sisters: Don't fer-get May 4th is our next accial meeting. Hope you can all come. Will those who are gong to help with the Coner come early please? And don't forget to bring your fancy work or sewag for exhibition.

The conference of six churches is to be large flock if I can.

As I am chairman of the next meeting of Club No. 1, I suppose I have get to do something, so it you will all bring something for the May basket, say a 18-cent present, you will all get one in return, and bring plate, knife, fork and spoon and cup and something to cat as usual, and we will try and fill you all up. Alfara, Olga, Lonesome Pine, Aunt Aliela, May, Althea.

ROSE LDE.

DRIED PEACH DUMPLING;
Dear Corner Sisters and Editor: Several have asked for my dried peach dumpling recipe for which I received a prize of $50, so I will give it to The Corner:

Make a good biscuit dough quite stiff and to a pint of flour add a cup of dried peaches which have been seaked over night and skinned, and one-half cup of sugar.

Make into individual shapes and steam three-quarters of an hour. Servie with a sweetened cream flavored with a sprink, ling of cinnamon.

The contrevence of six churches is the beheld here Wednesday, May, 4th. The service in the morning will be preached by Rev. H. D. Rollason of Middlegtown. The subject is Four Hundred Tears Ago—Lest We Four Hundred Tears Ago—Lest We which can be ready made in the morn-ing; enough, at least, to go round bn the days when madain wishes to be away from home. Here a lemon pis—the rien to pie crust baked before the breakfast dishes were put away—there the creamy ismon filling and in the refrigerator a bowl of egg whites ready to froth into a meringue. Or a dish of canned peaches or plums and a simple cake baked in twenty minutes that morning. Or gingerbread and whipped cream or one of many good desserts made of gelatine and fruit or nuts.

Below is a dinner menu planned for the day when one goes a-visiting:

Broiled steak, creamed potatoes, celery, bread and butter, grape fruit galad wafers, marshmallow case, coffee skins and pared in the morning. A thickening of flour and milk with chopped

MEETING THE DIFFICULTIES.

TWENTY'S APPRECIATED BIRTHDAY REMEM-Dear Social Corner Sisters: I wish to thank the sisters who so kindly remem-bered me on my recent birthday. I could not imagine how any one should have known my birthday as I had told no one, and then I remembered that I had written my pen name in several books at the last dinner and following sooks at the last dinner and following the example of others had added my birth date.

Nannie Lou: We may not be old friends in years, but good friends and members of the same social family.

Student: I like your name. It is suggestive of work and study if we would know all thinks worth knowing.

Dear Social Corner Sisters and Editor: Your physician will tell you that when-ever possible you should lie down for a little rest each day. To do so will take some of the load off of that faithful heart